posed; but he seemed to get but poor consolation for his pains. Baylly wanted to adjoure, it was said, to review the Senate's amendments to the Canal and Diplomatic bill. Mr. Vinton wanted to push the Army Bill through to night. There were some whisperings about the Whigs making another Tariff movement to morrow—to do which it was necessary to get rid of the "special order" of this bill. A fear that the River and Harbor bill would have a chance for passage this session, and was necessary to get rid of the "special order" of this bill. A fear that the River and Harbor bill would have a chance for passage this session, and a desire to defeat it, were whispered by the Loc-Focos. Whether there was any truth in all this, I am unable to say. It is probable that the Opposition thought so; and that was as influential as the fact upon their minds if they did.

Within a few minutes to seven, Mr. Richarderson rose to make a motion. "Order," "order" from the Whigs in general, but Mr. Vinnon in particular, and "rap," "rap" from the Chairman. Finally he got a hearing, and moved a recess. He was ruled out of order. Then again the process of withholding votes, calling the roll, rising for want of a quorum, reporting absentes, inever reported in fact!) and sitting again. At length the word went among the Loco-Focos "Let us go through and try them!" Enough went through to make a quorum, accordingly, and it was announced that the Committee, for the twentieth time, had refused to rise. Some amendment was again put to vote by tellers without a quorum. On the announcement of the fact, some one on the Loco-Foco side rose to speak. "Order, order!" from the Whig side, "rap, rap!" from the Chair, and "call the roll, call the roll!" from the Loco-Focos, utterly drowned his voice.

The CHAIR—"There is too much conversation.

THE CHAIR—"There is too much conversation in the Hall. Unless gentlemen cease, the business cannot proceed?"

A VOICE—"Have you just found that out?"

Rap, rap! At this time, as frequently before, the disorder was indescribable. Bome Members were gathered in sitting or standing groups in the area, in front of the Chair, and in the principal aisles, while others were leisurely lounging in their seats, with their feet gracefully thrown upon their desks. There seemed to be some division of opinion among the Loco-Focos as to the propriety of the course of resistance they were pursuing, but there seemed no one with courage enough to rebuke it.

Mr. Gentry raised the point of order that the Chair could not announce that there was no quorum, when it was palpable that there was no quorum ont, and announced the point overruied.

Mr. Gentry appealed. Mr. Chowett proceeded to speak. Mr. Carters called him to order with a voice of thunder. ["Louder!" Hap, rap, and laughter.] Mr. Thompson of Mississippi proceeded to speak. "Order, order!" Rap, rap, rang through the Hall. He struggled to be heard through the tumult, showing much feeling; but in vain. Tellers on the appeal gave 51 to 40, and, of course, no quorum. The Chair was now fairly out of patience, and announced that he should entertain no more appeals; said it was evident that there was no quorum to decide. appeals; said it was evident that there was no quorum to decide.

Thus the struggle was kept up to the evident en-tertainment of the outsiders, who began to fleck to the galleries in unusual numbers until eight o'clock, the galleries in unusual numbers until eighto clock, when a motien to rise was entertained by the chair, the had refused to entertain it for some time, for want of intervening business) and gave 68 to 68. The chair voted in the affirmative! A laugh followed, and the committee rore and reported that it had come to no conclusion on the bill. A number of members now spring to the floor. Mr. F. EATHERSTON was assigned it, and moved an adjournment, which was put by yeas and nays, CARTER and other Loco-Focos voting "No" out of "spite," as it seemed. It gave a refusal to adjourn.

Mr. Evans of Md. now moved that the House resolve itself into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union. Mr. Thompson of Miss. moved were ordered. Another motion to adjourn was made, (by Mr. WILLIAMS, a Whig, this time,) and the Yeas and Nays were ordered on it, and again gave a refusal of 61 to 85!

At half-past eight I close this letter, leaving the devilery to take its course, with the notification that the night's proceedings (7) may be taken as a specimen of the scenes which may be anticipated until the close of the Session. As such I send it forth for the contemplation of the people, who have sent here these 'unprofitable servants.'

THURSDAY IN THE HOUSE.

Burcombe Amendments to the War Bill and Speeches-The Western Armory Project-How Killed Off-Alabama Cobb on the Peace Congress-Ille Faithfulness to Bun-combe vouched for-The Bill Passed-The Civil and Diplomatic Bill up, &cc.
Correspondence of The Tribune.
Washington, Thursday, Sept. 20.

Buncombe has been the order of the day for a great part of to day's session. The question of the alleged necessity for a Western Armory. It stood thus at adjournment-according to the following parsgraph of the Army Bill:

"For purchasing a site and commencing [well said—for] the necessary works for a National Armory at Fort Massac, near the confluence of the Cumberland, Tennessee, Ohio and Missassipis Rivers, pursuant to the provision of the act of September, sighteen hundred and brity-one, and to the report of the Commissioners appointed under said provision, to be applied under the direction of the Secretary of War."

around which seemed to have been employed for the very purpose of calling attention to it and suggesting attempts at Buncombe substitutes of other localities, was stricken out. Then there followed a motion to strike out the whole paragraphfrom Mr. OTIS, of Maine. This was pending this morning when the House went into Committee, with an amendment, by Mr. BowLin, of Missouri, to insert St. Louis. The Bancombeising process was commenced in earnest. (The members are generally in earnest when their popularity at home is the question!) A dozen of points in the West and Bouthwest were designated and urged by corresponding process. and Southwest were designated and urged by corresponding speeches. Finally the whole paragraph was stricken out in Committee; the dog inthe-manger contest about particular places in the West having admirably served to kill the whole movement, and the finishing stroke having been given by the following amendment, proposed in a spirit of waggishness by Alabama Cons—who would be a pretty good fellow by the way, were he under better associations, and such as would not require him to serve the propagandists, as he has done quite faithfully, during the straggle just passed:

"Provided, further, Having in view the salutary effects that may be produced by the reare Convention, near in sestion at Frankforton, the Main, which may abolish the use of arms for the purpose of War, it is hereby provided that all arms hereafor to be constructed shall be upon such plans as to be suitable for the purpose of hunting game, or other am usements."

What were the "other amusements" intended to be designated, I am at a loss to infer. Perhaps they are those coffee and pistol "amusements" so gloried in by the chivalry, or those "other amusements" in which the armies of the "glorious Union" have been applied to the control of the property of the control of the property of the control of the control of the property of the control of the con Union' have been made to engage, when murder ing Indians, to regain the possession of their fugi-tive chattel lands for the devastation of slavery But, be this as it may, many an idle jest like this has proved an index of things to come; and so the Peace Congress, thus attempted to be brought into ridicule, "may" lead to the "abolition of the use reacted, "may lead to the "aboution of the use of arms for the purpose of war," and thus prove to have been the precursor of the reign of Universal Peace. Go on, then, with your riducile, Mr. Coss, as fast as you please! You have at least my thanks for your decidedly suggestire proposition.

When the Committee finally rose, (as it did about 21 clock there were much fawar agorsts.)

When the Committee many rose, (as it did about 2] o'c'ock,) there were much fewer separate votes called for than I anticipated—only three in all. The first of these was on the amendment pro-viding for the Cemetery in Mexico, which passed without even a division. The second was on strik-ing out the aforesaid "Massac" Armory clause, which was put by Yeas and Nays, and gave 98 to 60, sustaining the action of the Committee. On the third and last (the purchase of $50,000 worth of Colt's Revolvers!) the motion to strike out was carried, Yeas 116 to Nays 46. The bil was then passed without a division. Mr. FOWLER (seemingpassed without a division. Mr. Fowler (seemingly suspecting some lurking devil in the still water of the unusually non-resistant process) made the usual motion to "clinch," which was carried nem. con. Mr. Richardson demanded the Yeas and Nays, and they were not called, the demand being merely a good joke.

Mr. McLare, of Md. previous to the rising of the Committee, and siyan notice that immediately

Mr. McLane, of an previous that immediately upon the disposition of the Army bill, he should move to take up the River and Harbor Bill; but Mr. Bart; "caught the Speaker's eye," and moved to go into Committee of the Whole, with the avowed purpose of taking up the Senate amend-ments to the Civil and Diplomatic bill. Once in Committee, Mr. McLane rose to redeem his pledge; but he was ruled out of order by the chair and took his seat amid sounds of rap rap rap and took his seat amid sounds of rap rap rap! order, order, order! Mr. LITTLEFIELD—We have not laid aside the President's California Message!

The Appropriation was, on motion of Mr. Barly, who again caught the Chairman's (Mr. Burl) eye, taken up. The fate of the Senate's amendeye, taken up. The fate of the Senate's amenders severally. I must leave your Telegraphic sketch to tell. Suffice it to say, that they were mainly concurred is, so far as progressed with—The one reatoring the longest route for missage computation, which was so praiseworthly resisted by Senater CHASE, with the aid of Mr. CLAY, and a few others, was not concurred in, so far as the striking out was concerned. Instead thereof, the amendment of the Senate was added to the original clause, as adopted by the House, as a sert of explanation or proviso. This declares hat the rale of the act of 1818, on the subject shall be athered to. It provides that all "certificates" granted by the Presiding officers of the two flouses, respectively, of the amount of compensation due" shall be held to be "conclusive upon all the departments and officers of the Government" If the Senate should refuse to retreat from its amendment, i predict that the House will "give in." The reformaand officers of the Government." If the Senate should refuse to retreat from its amendment, I predict that the House will "give in." The reformatory clause of the Bill was probably supported by not a few of the Members of the House, with the hope that the Senate would strike it out, as formerly. There is never any "serious disagreement" where money is to be voted to themselves. "Long retreating in this wing and hearing, would never lead routes," in this view and bearing, would never lead to any such "long Sessions" as the one we had

At a few minutes before 40'clock, the Committee At a new minutes before to close, the Committee rose without coming to a conclusion. A brief and ineffectual struggle to get the rules suspended, with a view to a recess, after the manner of the Benate, ensued, and the House adjourned to the search lose.

The sitting to day has been remarkably quiet, compared with the turbulence last night. SIGMA.

PROCLAMATION OF GOVERNOR TO WIS.

PROCLAMATION OF GOVERNOR TOWNS.

By Telegraph for the Southern Press.

Macon, Ga Sept. 23—10 o'clock P. M.

To the Electors of the State of Georgia:

Below I forward the Proclamation of Governor Towns of Georgia:

George W. Towns, Governor of the said State, to the electors thereof, greeting: Having been of ficially informed that the Congress of the United States has admitted California into the Union of the States of the Confederacy upon equal terms with the original States, a duty devolves upon me, in the performance of which I shall trespass upon the public but briefly. An unfeigned deference for public opinion, and the profound regard I entertain for the wisdom, firmness and patriotism of my fellow-citizens of Georgia, will not justify me, in a paper of this character, in repeating my known unchanged opinions as to the duty of the Soath in repelling Free Soil encroachment, and arresting, by all proper means, usurpation by Congress. Whatever is compatible with the honor and obligations of the people of the State to the country, its laws and its institutions, I doubt not will receive their warm support, in an hour of danger, when your institutions are in jeopardy, your feelings wantonly outraged, your social organization derided, your honor deeply wounded, and the Federal Constitution violated by a series of aggressive measures, all tending to the consummation of one object—the abolition of Slavery. The common territory of all, which you have an equal right to occupy and enjoy, has been denied you in the solemn form of law, under pretences the most shallow—it well becomes you to assemble, to deliberate and counsel together for your mutual preservation and safety, whatever it may cost. The extraordinary events by which we are encompassed, and the well becomes you to assemble, to deliberate and counsel together for your mutual preservation and safety, whatever it may cost. The extraordinary events by which we are encompassed, and the measures which it will demand or justify, must be left, as they should be, to the patriotism, firmess, and prudence of the propie themselves. Upon them devolves the duty of redressing present wrongs, and providing other safeguards for fature security—neither the one nor the other of which, however, will ever be effectually accomplished, until by patriotic elforts, perfect harmony and concerd of feeling are restored, and concert of action produced among the people of the South.

In view, therefore, of the atractous Free Soil sentiment and policy, not merely of the non-slave-holding States, but of the government—of the imminent peril to which the institution of slavery is reduced by the act of Congress admixing the State of California into the Union with a constitution containing the principle of the Wilmot Proviso, and in deliance of our warning and earnest remonstrance—in view of the deplorable fact that some diversity of opinion exists in some of the Southern States, as to the proper mode of redressing the wrongs and avoiding the dangers which all must see and feel—let me, fellow citizens, earnestly entreat you to cultivate for each other a doep and abiding sentiment of fraternal regard and confidence, and approach the task, from which there ly entreat you to cultivate for each other a deep and abiding sentiment of fraternal regard and confidence, and approach the task, from which there is no escape, of deciding upon your duty to Georgia and the country, with a firm step, but not without calm, deliberate, and patient investigation, consulting neither fears nor dangers on the one hand, nor permitting yourselves, from examperated feelings of wrong on the other to be rashly urged to extreme measures, which have not reactived the full sanction of your judgment. Then I shall not despair of seeing the whole State, as one man proposing nothing beyond what the emergency may demand, or failing to perform whatever patriotism, honor, and right may require at y ur hands. The General Assembly of this State, by an act approved the 8th of February, 1850, having re-

The General Assembly of this State, by an act approved the 8th of February, 1850, having required me, upon the happening of certain events—one of which is the admission of California as a State into the Union—to Issue a Proclamation ordering an election to be held in each and every County, for Delegates to a Convention of the people of this State, to take into consideration such measures as comport with the extraordinary posture of our relations to our co States, and to decide the only the measures are necessary and prome to ture of our relations to our co States, and to decide upon what measures are necessary and proper to be taken, compatible with our honor and Constitutional obligations, as well as more effectually to socure our right of property in slaves, and to arrest all aggressions by one section of the Union upon the free enjoyment of the Constitutional rights of the other; and, lastly, to preserve inviolate the equality of the States of the Union, as guaranteed under the Constitution; therefore, be it known, that I, ity of the States of the Union, as guaranteed under the Constitution; therefore, be it known, that I, George W. Towns, Governor of the State of Georgia, by the authority and mandate of the law, do have this, my Proclamation, ordering and directing that the qualified voters of the most numerous branch of the General Assembly do meet at the several places in this State for holding elections, as fixed by law, in the several Counties of this State, within the hour fixed for voting on Monday, the 25th day of Novemb r next, and then and there, by ballot, to elect two delegates in each of the Counties now entitled to one Representative in the General Assembly, and four delegates in such of the Counties as are now entitled to two such of the Counties as are now entitled to two Representatives. The managers of said election are required to certify and forward to this Depart ment the names of such elected in the manner pre-scribed by law for the election of Representatives in the General Assembly. And be it further or-dered, that such delegates as may be elected by a majority of their Representative Counties be convened at the capital of said State on Tuesday, the 10th day of December next.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Executive Department, at the capital in Milledge.

SEYNTH EDITION INPROVED—THE MOST POPULAR WORK
EVER FRINTED—32 000 copies sold in Six Months.

THIS WORK is really the most useful to Housekeepers of any ever issued. It gives plain instructions about Laundry matters, that enables one person to do a large family washing in a very short time, without using pounders, rubbers, machines, acids, turpentine, ammonts, cauhave a copier ruffersive articles. It banishes all washing phene, or other offensive articles. It banishes all washing en, grease spots, stains, i.c. kc. These are the greatest and most valuable chemical discoveries of the age. My method is adopted by all the large hotels, landry establishments, steamers, first families, &c. &c. The instructions are so plain none can mistake them. The articles used are all piain none can mistake them. The articles used are all safe, agreeable, cheap, and can be obtained anywhere for a few cents. My plan is the cheapest and best in the world. The work is sent by mail in scaled envelopes at single letter postage. Frice only $1 per copy. Read the annexed PROOF in THE CITY OF NEW-YORK.
